Sir,

In continuation, the video and the images of the 3 D Postcard (Samples) are attached for your clear understanding la. The sample is for Tadzong however, the committee proposes Dochula and Blue Poppy for now due to limited time. The future plans are for Taktsang 3 D postcards which require more time compared to the existing post card ideas.

Thank you

Dear Nima and Team,

I hope everyone thoroughly reviewed and proposed the 3D Postcards with proper consideration. While reviewing the minutes, I noticed that the minimum required quantity is stated as 300, but the cost calculation was based on 250 numbers. I trust that the Marketing team and the Philately unit have studied the market carefully before moving forward with the production of such high-cost postcards.

Good Morning Madam,

Thank you for your comments.
Regarding the MOQ, we have negotiated with the supplier to have two designs at MOQ of 250 nos each. Otherwise brought individually we have to order a minimum of 300 nos for one design. In addition, if we could order within 30th August where they have Charter flight, then we will be charged $125 for 500 postcards. This shipping charge will be $125 whether we order 300 nos or 500 nos and also, if we have to wait for their next Charter flight then it may be next year only. Therefore, looking at the cost benefit we could have if ordered 500 nos (2 designs), the EFC committee has recommended the MOQ of 250nos each design.

Regarding the market study, we have not seen such customized 3 d postcards in the current market and it's a new generation postcards aimed for tourists. This will be our pilot phase and we believe it's going to sell well la.

Sincerely,

Dear Nima and EFC team,

I too share the same views as expressed by the Head, CSD regarding the proposed quantity, especially considering the current market demand. The new proposed product initiative is highly regarded.

With regards.
